

RED DEER MINOR HOCKEY

R.D.M.H.C. CODES OF CONDUCT

VOLUNTEER'S CODE

1. Expect no special rights or privileges because you are a volunteer.
2. Understand that even though you may not agree with all RDMHC policies or practices, as a representative of the organization, you have an obligation to publicly support them and always abide by them. If you do not agree with them, you can work within the system to have them changed.
3. Accept that because you are a representative of the RDMHC, your actions, either positive or negative, reflect on all of the other volunteers in the organization.
4. Base all your decisions and actions on what is best for the majority of hockey players while respecting the rights of the individual.
5. Be prepared to listen and respond to any concerns brought to you.
6. Be prepared to listen to ideas from other people even though they may differ from your own.
7. Judge ideas on their own merit, and the benefit they can bring the hockey player and don't fall back on (But they've always done it this way).
8. Work patiently for improvement. Do not expect too much too quickly.
9. Be slow to anger and hard to discourage.
10. Anticipate people's shortcomings and make allowances for them.
11. Be prepared to put in long, hard hours with little or no recognition except the self-satisfaction of knowing you have accepted a challenge many turn away from.

PARENT'S CODE

1. Do not force an unwilling player to participate in sports.
2. Remember that participants should be involved in organized sports for their enjoyment, not yours.
3. Encourage son/daughter to always play by the rules.
4. Teach your son/daughter that honest effort is as important as victory and that if you give your best, then you have won, regardless of the score.

RED DEER MINOR HOCKEY

5. Turn defeat to victory by helping your son/daughter work toward skill improvement and good sportsmanship. Never ridicule or yell at your son/daughter for making a mistake or losing a competition.
6. Congratulate your son/daughter on honest effort and skill improvement, not just goals and assists.
7. Remember that players learn best by example. Applaud a good play by either team.
8. Do not publicly question the official's judgment and never their honesty. After all, have you offered to do the job?
9. Abuse of players, coaches, officials or volunteers will not be tolerated.
10. Actively support all efforts to remove verbal and physical violence from hockey.
11. Recognize the value and importance of volunteers. They give their time and resources to provide recreational activities for your son/daughter.
12. Attend most practices and games.
13. Have players at the rink at coaches specified times before games and practices.
